

Contribution of the Women in Science and Technology to the technology driven Sustainable Tourism Industry in Sri Lanka

on 20th December 2023
at Auditorium of the National Science Foundation
9.00 am Onwards

Prof. D.A.C. Suranga Silva

Professor in Economics & Tourism
STU / UOC

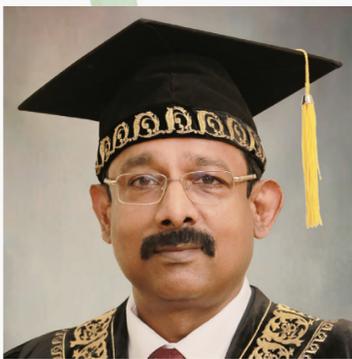

Sustainable Tourism as a growing Industry for Economic Gain and areas of interest for Women contribution

Dr. Rajini Sulochana Seger

Founder/ CEO / Women in Management

Sustainable Women Empowerment through the Tourism Industry

Prof. Mahesh Edirisinghe

Vice Chancellor/ UNIVOTECH

Value addition in the Tourism Industry through Vocational Education

Dr. Sepalika Sudasinghe

Director General/ NSF

Role of the women in science and technology for sustainable Tourism Industry in Sri Lanka: Policy reforms for the business startups and technology innovations

Dr. Pathmasiri Ranasinghe

Principal Scientist/ ITI

Unique Proposition of Natural / Herbal Products in Nature Centric Wellness Tourism in Sri Lanka,
A role of Scientists in Re-shaping Traditional Health & Wellness Approaches

Dr. Himalee De Silva

Senior Lecturer, FIM, UOC / Entrepreneur

Potential Market opportunities in the Wellness Tourism & Homestay as a Growing Industry

Call 0712272882/ 0716233953 or email owdsrilanka@gmail.com for Reservations

Organized by the Sri Lanka National Chapter of the Organization for Women in Science for the Developing World – SLNC/OWSD in collaboration with the National Science Foundation and UNESCO Organization for the Women in Science for the Developing World